'Last week's news to-day or maybe next week.'

This week we are sorry to have to bid farewell to two of our Officers who we have come to admire and respect during their service with us.

We hope that success will follow them in their civilian careers and if they receive reassignments to the CCC we shall again meet up with them.

Ensign Cain we welcome you to the Myakka Valley. We believe we have one of the finest camps in the entire Corp area and hope that you will share our opinion. We also hope you will find your stay with us pleasent and comfortable.

Lieutenants Anderson and Livingston have taken the following space to express their regret upon leaving the camp and their hopes and advice for the future.

UPON LEAVING YOU:
"Like a flower that blooms in the depth of the ocean
'Neath billows that never can break on the beach,
My soul is awake with a spell of emotion,
Too silent and full to break into speech,
My gratitude's deep but it can not be written,
There's a song in my heart but it can not be sung,
My harp is too weak, my memory striken,
By the echoing chimes others have rung."

Follows you all know I hate to leave you. If there were one wish I might have to-day, it is this: that I could stay on here with you all. But since I can't, let me say that, that I have enjoyed every day of my tour duty here, and that I shall never forget it. If you will be as considerate and obedient to your future superiors as you have been to me, I am sure you will always find the way easy.

My farewell words of advice are: Always take advantage of every opportunity you are offered to do better. Take advantage of the educational programs given here and remember:

"Heights great men reached and kept,
Were not obtained by sudden flight,

CAMP NOT TO MOVE

NAVAL OFFICER IN CAMP

J. R. Cain, Ensign, USNR, of Savannah arrived in camp Wednesday to replace Lt. Anderson, whose tour of duty was at end.

Mr. Cain is a graduate of the Naval Reserve Training school at Georgia Tech university and has seen active sea duty.

He comes to this company from the camp at Eastport and is acting as Mess Officer and Exchange Officer.

SWIMMING

A diving and lifeguard has been erected at the bend of the river just north of camp.

Two sets of ring buoys, life lines and grappling hooks have arrived. They will be put to use in the river here and at the beach. A spring board is also expected soon.

Swimming classes will be started next week and those who can not swim are asked to attend and those who wish to improve their form will receive further instruction.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTIZERS

NEW CAMP TO BE PLACED IN VENICE AREA.

Rumors that this camp was to be removed to Venice soon, were squelched when the following telegram appeared in the Sarasota Tribune:

"Statement that Miakka camp to move is error and likely to cause controversy. That camp to remain in place and new camp be assigned to Venice lands as quickly as procurable."

The telegram was from Carl F. Bohlebor, District Forester at Lakeland.

This will come as a disappointment to many who were all set to move and practically on their way.

SUMMER UNIFORMS

New uniforms for summer wear will be issued in the near future. They will consist of slacks similar to those which were recently received by the rated personnel.

Hernandez took a lot of trouble to find out how good this guy bye was whom he was to play in the ping-pong tournament.

"CONSOMME"

Will W. Bell was born at Punta Gorda. He moved to Tampa and then to Sarasota with the rest of the millionaires. He attended various elementary schools and Bay Haven high school.

He worked on Ringling Estate one summer and witnessed the sinking of the Ringling yacht. No it was'nt his fault. Bell worked for or on the K. M. Bennet Feed Co. for four years. That accounts for his brawn.

-Muscle-Bound-

He saw he was getting too muscle bound so he obtained a job at the Edwards theatre showing people to seats they weren't about to sit in".

He got hungary again and secured a job with the B&B Grocery Co. When he had eaten all their bannanas he found employment with Edwards Grocery Co.. He did a great deal of caddying for various big butter and egg men during his school days. He has held the bag for the Ringlings, Bobby Jones, (we are looking for a CCC boy who hasn't caddied for Bobby Jones) J. W. Dean, Powell Crosley, and Frank Williard, creator of Moon Mullins.

Legion

The most interesting part of his career was when he went with the Legion scouts to find bodies of people drowned in the flood and storm of '26. He saw some gruesome sights. Some of the bodies had been in the water for two weeks. Papers stated that there were a thousand killed. The legionaires collected the dead, poured quick lime and gasoline on them and cremated them. Gas masks and pitchforks had to be used. The bodies were so disintegrated that there were no means of identifying any.

'Consomme' emerged with his appetite intact but later he felt like taking a vacation so he joined

"IT HAS BEEN LOCATED"

The boys very often ask why certain enrollees invariably stop at Bee Ridge. In fact there has been quite a discussion on the subject.

According to the report from one of the leading lads it is no longer a mystery.

It seems as though some one offered a reward for Noah's Ark and boys had an idea they could find it. They did. The SAL Railroad is using it for a depot at Bee Ridge.

SEBRING 16 Myakka 9

Coming from behind Sebring beat the Rattlers last week by the foot-score of 16 - 9.

The Rattlers were in the lead until the fifth inning as they combined nine hits including doubles by Coto and Brooks and a triple by E. Smith to push across eight runs.

But when Dainclowiez releived Roberts for Sebring and Quesada had to leave the game , the locals could score only one run to ten for the visitors.

Score by innings;

				R	H	E
Sebring	220	253	101	16	19	5
Myakka	422	001	000	9	11	3

Sulpher Springs not to play to-day.

The game with Sulpher Springs scheduled for to-day has been indefinetly post poned at the upstaters request.

Due to the moval of the Sebring camp from this district it looks as if the veterans of Mulberry will make the trip to Miami to Play Company 269 for the district championship.

Reynolds must be a pretty good Pingpong player. He has reached the semi finals with out having a point scored against him.

SCORES UPSET IN OPENING ROUND

E. C. Grimmett after an upset victory against Kelly in the opening round of the table-tennis tournament had an easy time reaching the finals. Morgan and Monroe caused him no trouble. Goss the only other player in the bracket lost to straight to W. R. Monroe. Spanos could do nothing in his match with Goss.

In the other bracket Shugars easily beat Hernandez while Reynolds reached the semi-finals by default. The Reynolds-Shugars match will determine the one to face Grimmett with Shugars favored

BATTING AVERAGES

Only two players are hitting over three hundred and they are King and Arrington. The rest can't seem to place their hits where no one is.

OFFICERS LEAVE

2nd Lieutenants John L. Anderson and Langdon A. Livingston left camp Friday afternoon at the termination of their six months tour of duty.

They intend to make a short visit in Cuba before returning to their homes. It. Anderson lives at Milledgeville,GA., and It. Livingston's home is in North, S. C.

DAUGHERTY-QUINTANA

Edward Quintana, one of our more popular enrollees left for his home where he has obtained employment.

Quintana was recently married to Miss Luella Daugherty a popular Sarasota girl and the couple will make their home in Miami.

Quintana had put in almost fourteen months service with the CCC. He enlisted July 17, 1934 at Miami, Fla.

Dugan does not seem to as popular with the Sarasota gals since he no longer drives a truck. Poor Frank.

But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night."

Until we meet again, if not on this earth, perhaps in a better land Goodbye and good luck to you all.

John L. Anderson,
2nd Lieut. 325th Inf.

My sentiments, though not as aptly expressed as Lieutenant Anderson's are none the less deeply felt. I have enjoyed being with all more than most anything else I have ever done.

I regret this parting and hope that I will see you all again soon. I can only echo Lieutenant Anderson advice and wish you all the best of luck and success.

Langdon A. Livingsto
2nd Lieutenant 325 Inf

Rev. D. L. BOWMAN

The Reverend D. L. Bowman of Sarasota conducted the weekly religious service Thursday. He gave an interesting talk on the work of the CCC in the mountainious region of the Carolinas, Tennessee and Virginia

At the conclusion of the meeting ice cream was served. The cream was to have been served at supper but did not reach here in time.

It's no use boys, barrack number one seems to be a regular political machine. (Or shall we call it a junior Tammany Hall?)

Poor little Boncomo, since he's been sick everybody seems to be picking on him

Arcadia seems to have Mr. Spanos in a big way. Or is it in a big way.

Hooray!. Holmberg got to be side kick again. Much to the boys dissappointment.

The rock crew boys got all the the breaks. Ask Shufars or the House.

Shorty Stroud will certainly make a good bookkeeper, he sure watches his books, in fact he carries them under his arm all the time.

Earl Gonzalez does'nt seem to be doing so well in Sarasota, there's always something in the way. "This is the last straw"

I wonder if Edgello is over his big fright of Saturday nite.

A certain girl in Arcadia seems to think a boy in the CCC is dead on it.

"Babe" Clayton is Arcadia's pal.

We wonder why a blond in Arcadia has a crush on blonds.

We wonder which will be the final out come-Viola or Mabel.

We see Jess McCloman got quiet a rush Saturday Nite. "More power to you".

It seems Shug is Dean's competion Watch your step Dean.

"Tony" de Silvestri thinks it certainly surprising to go to a party and awake to find himself in his own bunk.

These last seven items were turned in by our agents in Arcadia. They sent in a little poetry, but you will have to wait until next week to see it.

Neither Baldwin nor Knowles could take it Friday afternoon. And Baldwin did not want to take it.

The plaintive petunia of No. 2 barrack still warbles.

Peacock seems to have a permanent job down there on the chimney.

Lewis makes a good junior.

PATRIOTIC ASSYMBELY

Friday night in the Recreation Hall the second of a weekly series of entertainments was held. It took the form of a patriotic meeting. Mr. Merrin introduced the speakers and led in the singing of America and other patriotic numbers

Captain Fabian, the first speaker spoke of the respect due the flag and the positions in which it should be placed. He also told of the various salutes to the flag and stated that at retreat all enrollees are required to stand at attention facing the flag.

William Phillips read an address on the Meaning of the Constitution He was followed by Bill Boring who traced the history of the flag from the days of the original colonies to the present

Douglas Reynolds gave the American's Creed and was followed by Bobby Alderman who receited the flag speaks. All then stood and took the oath of allegiance lead by Boring.

Several more patriotic songs were sung and then were followed by old favorites.

Joe Ridely of Sarasota supplied the music.

the CCC. He is acting leader of the road crew now. He left the kitchen, not be cause he did not like the work but he couldn't take Nilo's singing and Frenchy's whistling. We miss those good meals - eh what? But then roads are needed too.

IT HAS BEEN LOCATED (cont. from 6)

Now they will have to return to Bee Ridge to spend their money. Oh well Such is life.

Monroe wont talk to Grimett.

QUESADA MOST POPULAR

According to the returns from last week's contest Enrique Quesada is the most popular boy in camp.

Quesada is first string pitcher on the baseball nine and is considered to be one of the best in the league. Poor support so far has kept him from complying a record equal to the records of Danielowiez of Sebring and Brown of Mulberry.

We hear Bill Howell is in training for a clerk's job.

To-day is Friday and tomorrow is Saturday. Those gals in Arcadia sure can reason.

We wonder why Shugars couldn't be found for his match Saturday. Can he be afraid of the Fat Lady.

We hear that Junior sat down the other day and bit himself.

Grimmett wont talk to to Monroe
